

The Italian Divide (Craig Page Thriller Book 5)

When prominent Italian banker Federico Castiglione is murdered in an apparent jewelry robbery gone wrong, things are not what they seem. Former CIA Director Craig Page is enjoying his new life as Italian race car driver Enrico Marinobut when he hears that his friend and sponsor has been found dead, he suspects foul play. Shortly after Castigliones death, Italian banker Andrew Goldoni is asked to sellor else. When he refuses, his daughter goes missing. Craig embarks on an investigation to solve the riddles underlying Castigliones murder and rescue Goldonis daughter, but the pieces dont quite fit. The murderers are Russian, but the takeovers are based in China, and somehow Roberto Parelli, the Italian separatist candidate for President, is involved. With the help of Elizabeth Crowder, CIA director Betty Richards, and director of EU Counter Terrorism Giuseppe, Craig discovers a complicated web of mysterious political and financial takeovers across Italy, all linked back to Craigs sworn enemy, Zhou Yun, and Roberto Parelli. In The Italian Divide loyalties lie deep, dangerous alliances are made to be broken, and organized crime is omnipotent. Allan Topols latest Craig Page thriller is an electrifying foray into the world of international intrigue. Against blackmail, extortion, and treason, can Craig Page still prevail?
