

Bleeding Hearts

Ray Stryker is a Gulf War veteran, ex-cop turned Private Investigator, and a recovering alcoholic with a volatile temper and a short fuse. Jayne Morris is a painter slash aspiring writer who, ritually abused as a child, harbors some inner demons of her own. Her life is also empty until she meets Ray, and for now, these two damaged people seem to complete each other. Apart, they are just two more damaged people on the long hard road to oblivion. Together, they are so much more. The feelings they had to endure anger, abandonment, denial, disbelief, social withdrawal, and then even guilt, no longer made them feel powerless over their own destiny. Enter Romeo, a suave, charming serial killer - who has his eyes set on Jayne. Can Ray stop him in time from claiming Jayne as his next victim? Full of unforgettable characters, whip-smart, in-your-face dialogue, and nail-biting suspense, BLEEDING HEARTS is a wild ride through the dark world of neon lights and lost souls, as seen through the eyes of a man with nothing to lose.
