

Memoires de Napoleon: Roman (French Edition)

A Sainte-Helene, Napoleon a dicte des souvenirs a ses compagnons dinfortune. Leurs recits, precieux, sont frappes dune double tare : le besoin de construire une legende et celui, inlassable de faire de la propagande. Apres avoir etabli la version officielle de sa vie, le souverain dechu, pour lui, a eprouve le besoin decrire la verite : les Memoires de Napoleon sont une espece dAnti-memorial de Sainte-Helene. Lexile sy livre sans detour. Le fil de sa vie lui sert de pretexte a des mises en perspectives originales, a des confidences emouvantes et a une admirable collection de commentaires, notamment sur les hommes, le gouvernement, le role du prince, sur son temps ou sur la France. Napoleon, en faisant parvenir son manuscrit a un homme de confiance, lui avait prescrit dattendre six ou sept generations pour le livrer a la pature du public . Cest donc nous, gens de la fin du XXe siecle, qui avons le privilege et la joie - den etre les premiers lecteurs. Il y a dans ce recit, previent lauteur, davantage de verite que dexactitudes . Il y a surtout une lucidite et une modernite tellement troublantes, une fraicheur tellement intacte quon pourrait croire le livre ecrit aujourdhui. Il y a surtout une elevation qui, au dela de leur dimension romanesque, pourrait bien faire de ces Memoires, comme avant eux La Guerre des Gaules, un classique du millenaire qui va commencer.
