

Handfuls of Hope and Faith

Madison and Malcom Johnson were twins living in Massachusetts, getting ready to graduate high school. Just two months before the ceremony, Malcom took his own life and left Madison to pick up the pieces of their now broken family. Madi thinks her twin brother hasn't left anything behind, but is proven wrong when her and Malcom's best friend, Carter, find something in Malcom's room the morning after graduation. What they find in his room, brings them on an adventure that changes their lives along with many others and they're given an opportunity to start understanding Malcom's choice to leave. This story is filled with lessons, heartbreak, adventure and love and will take the reader through all of those more than once.
