

Everything Yearned For: Manhaes Poems of Love and Longing

Manhae (1879-1944), or Han Yongun, was a Korean Buddhist (Son) monk during the era of Japanese colonial occupation (1910-1945). Manhae is a political and cultural hero in Korea, and his works are studied by college students and school children alike. Everything Yearned For is a collection of 88 love poems, evocative of the mystical love poetry of Rumi, and even reminiscent of the work of Pablo Neruda. Though Manhae's poetry can be read allegorically on many levels - political and religious - it is completely unlike any other poetry in Buddhist or secular realm. The first poem, My Lovers Silence, narrates the lovers departure and establishes the enduring themes of the work: the happiness of meeting, the sadness of separation, the agony of longing and waiting, and, most of all, the perfection of love in absence that demands the cost of ones ongoing life, as opposed to the relief of death. The Korean word translated in these poems as love and lover is nim, though nim has many and broad interpretations. Understandably, the identity of Manhae's lover, or nim has been the subject of much speculation. Manhae writes in his own preface: Nim is not only a human lover but everything yearned for. All beings are nim for the Buddha, and philosophy is the nim of Kant. The spring rain is nim for the rose, and Italy is the nim of Mazzini. Nim is what I love, but it also loves me. If romantic love is freedom, then so is my nim. But arent you attached to the lofty name of freedom? Dont you also have a nim? If so, its only your shadow. I write these poems for the young lambs wandering lost on the road home from the darkening plains.
