

Last Ditch: A Leo Waterman Mystery (Leo Waterman Mysteries)

Seattle p.i. Leo Waterman knows the city like no one else. And he knows how to stretch the limits of the law, when necessary, to accomplish what needs to be done--a very useful talent Leo acquired from his late, larger-than-life father, once one of the regions most powerful and colorful political characters. But just how seriously Waterman senior transgressed during his time on Earth comes into question when one of the Boys--Leos residentially challenged barfly allies--digs up a human skeleton in Dads backyard. The remains that remain belong to Wild Bill Watermans staunchest foe--an ultra-conservative muckraking journalist who vanished mysteriously thirty years before. Leo has always struggled in his fathers shadow--but hes convinced that his old man was much too savvy to have committed murder--let alone to have interred the victim in his own backyard. But in order to clear his fathers damaged name, the dutiful son is going to have to start digging up a very dangerous past...and do his damndest not to get buried beneath it. Seattle p.i.
