

Little Sisters

From Gita and Daniels Upper West Side penthouse apartment in New York, to a primitive village in Nepals hinterland, to brothels in Mumbai...In Stuart Perrins multicultural suspense novel Little Sisters, the protagonists are drawn into the dangerous world of international sex trafficking. Beyond revealing the nightmare of sexual slavery, its a story of four sisters and how each of them is transformed by the horrors of life in a Mumbai brothel in dramatically different and unpredictable ways. When children (no matter what their nationality, ethnicity, or religion) are forced to become sex slaves, the entire world must take responsibility... - Authors Preface.
