

The Military Journals of Two Private Soldiers, 1758-1775 (Classic Reprint)

Museum in Poughkeepsie, I have, by extensive travel and research, and by the kindness of many of my fellow-citizens in Dutchess county and elsewhere, obtained numerous objects, not only curious in themselves, but valuable as materials for history. Among these are two manuscript Journals, kept by common soldiers, each during a single campaign, and written at periods seventeen years apart. One of these soldiers served in a campaign of the conflict known as the FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR, which commenced a hundred years ago: the other soldier assisted in the siege of Boston, by the American army, in 1775 and 1776. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
