The room was dark and smoky. Abandoned chairs sat around a small table, and a broken light bulb dangled uselessly above it. Moments ago, the light had been lit, until the commotion had broken out and shattered all sense of peace. The sounds of the gunfire still seemed to resonate within the walls. A man wearing a dark coat stepped from the shadows. His black hair was well oiled, and between this and his coat, he had about him the appearance of someone classy yet distant, clean-cut yet sinister. His lips twitched cruelly into a smile as he looked at the scene around him. He had succeeded in his endeavor.
