

The Treasure Hunt

The Treasure Hunt is first century historical fiction, a coming of age story that will especially entertain Christians. It is the tale of Cyrus, a teenager from Tarsus who is forced to grow up fast in the rough and tumble world of the Roman Legion. Along the way, Cyrus falls carelessly in love with Porcia, a beautiful and forbidden goddess from Rome. Unable to stop loves pull, the two teens embark on a romance destined to ruin both their lives, and in the process, Cyrus unwittingly finds himself caught up in a conspiracy and hunt for the worlds greatest treasures. The Treasure Hunt is an adventure that takes Cyrus and his legion mates to distant battlefields, and finally to Jerusalem, where he must confront true evil and ultimately, his own faith. Christians will no doubt enjoy Cyrus close encounters with some of the Bibles most revered characters, including Saul, a young tentmaker who also happens to be from Tarsus. Fans of history will appreciate well researched detail about all things Ancient Rome, including the mighty legion and the mysterious priests and cults wielding Romes religious power. In all, The Treasure Hunt is loaded with a memorable cast of heroes and scoundrels moving through some of the most facinating and challenging times of the early Christian church. Enjoy the ride.
