

Simon Says: Lifes a Game-- Are You Ready to Play?: A Novel

Simon Says is a bold, riveting tale of intrigue, suspense, political thrills and romance. It is the gritty, compelling journey of Alexander Baxter, a young man of treacherous beginnings from one of Washington, DC's most notorious ghettos. Seemingly sentenced to a life of crime, Alex is plucked from the clutches of fate by Simon Blake, who becomes his Svengali, and who also happens to be the city's illustrious mayor. A malleable Alex does exactly as Simon says and flourishes, propelling himself from his dismal surroundings into a storybook environment. Alex's life is charmed, almost Camelot-esque, and becomes everything he ever dreamed of being. Or does he? Through a series of plot twists, Alex's life of self-discovery, savagery and victories is told in a gripping fashion. Every facet of his life is intricately woven as Alex learns that no good deed goes unnoticed or unpunished, and to be careful what you ask for, you may end up getting it. And then what? Discover the shocking conclusion for yourself. Simon Says Lifes a game Are you ready to play?
