

The Collected Supernatural and Weird Fiction of Emma Frances Dawson: The Itinerant House and Other Stories-One Novelette: a Gracious Visitation and

A highly regarded collection of ghostly fiction. The author of this collection of the eerie and bizarre was an American poet, author, translator and musician of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Despite her many talents she attempted just one foray into the other world of supernatural fiction and the result was this book, The Itinerant House and Other Stories. Whilst its quality is undisputed, in its original edition it has become something of a rarity and is highly sought after by aficionados of the genre. So it is particularly gratifying that Leonaur is able to offer this new edition for modern readers. Within the ten tales inside its covers readers you will discover well crafted accounts of the strange and unearthly including, Are the Dead Dead?, A Gracious Visitation, Singed Moths and other gripping yarns to be read beside a warm fire on a cold, dark night. Available in soft cover and hard cover with dust jacket. Leonaur hard covers make fine collectors editions featuring real cloth bindings, taped head and tail bands and gold foil lettering upon their spines.
